

There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts fear out, because fear is of torment. Furthermore, the one who is of fear has not been made perfect in love!

We love because He first loved us.

Thus, indeed God loved the world, that He gave up His only-begotten son, so that whoever believes in Him ought not to perish but have everlasting life.

- 1 John 4:18-19

Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of such things the wrath of God comes upon the children of disobedience. - Ephesians 5:6

The LORD God called for Adam: "Where are you?". Adam said "I heard your voice and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself!" - Genesis 3:9-10

Like Adam, there might be embarrassing things that we don't want to admit. We become afraid of God, not trusting Him.

It is easy to get into a way of life that makes us argue against God's ways. We look for ways to feel less ashamed, but God still knows the truth and we are reminded of it whenever He is near.*

Children have no fear of being seen for who they are. They know that there is nothing they should be ashamed of, so they don't hide anything because they only have every good reason to trust.

This is the relationship that a Christian has with God, Our Father in heaven. He renews our conscience through baptism.*

Seek God while He may be found. Let the wicked and the unrighteous forsake their ways and return to Him. - Isaiah 55:6-7

"I SAW A GREAT WHITE THRONE, AND HIM THAT SAT ON IT, FROM WHOSE FACE THE EARTH AND THE HEAVEN FLED AWAY"

- REVELATION 20:11
